BEACHES

SALMON BAY
Popular for its ski boat, jet ski and paddle ski launch site, Salmon Bay is home to the Ballito Ski Boat Club, which hosts its annual fishing competition attracting competitors from all over the country.

CLARKE BAY
A much-loved bathing beach in Ballito that is also a popular dolphin viewing spot. If it's nightlife you're after, don't miss Clarke Bay. The famous Ballito New Year's Eve Street Party happens in the vicinity of Clarke Bay.

WILLARD BEACH
Besides being a stunning stretch of beach and sheltered coves, Willard Beach is also protected by shark nets and lifeguards. The annual Ballito Pro surfing event takes place during South Africa's winter holidays on this beach when surfers from around the world flock to ride the waves.

THOMPSON'S BAY
Thompson's Bay is a must for all tourists with its Charlie's Pool (tidal pool) and a unique rock formation that forms a Hole-In-The-Wall, creating a beautiful photographic opportunity amongst the many rock formations.

The bustling Thompson's Bay Rock Pool popularly known as Charlie's Pool is a haven for swimmers and snorkellers to discover fascinating sea life and coral.

TINLEY MANOR BEACH
A beautiful spot for fishermen and ideal for frolicking in the waves. A popular tidal pool makes this beach idyllic for families.

SHAKA'S ROCK BEACH
A popular beach for holidaymakers – relaxes and soak up the sun in its glorious tidal pool or snorkel amongst the colourful coral and sea life during the day or night.

SALT ROCK BEACH
The serene and tranquil shores make this the perfect beach for immersing yourself in a book. The beach hosts a massive crowd during the free music concerts of the Ballito Pro surfing event.

BLYTHEDALE BEACH
Boasting a coastline that is pristine and ideal for whale and dolphin spotting. Blythedale also has a lovely braai area and a children's play area. The KwaDukuza New Year's Eve festival is held here.

ZINKWAZI BEACH
Popular for water sports and snorkelling in the rock pools, Zinkwazi offers sundowner boat cruises on the lagoon and fishing during the early hours of the morning.

TUGELA BEACH
Tugela Beach is a nature-lovers delight. Surrounded by nature with spectacular views and birdwatching. Fish and shark species make for exciting catches, and if you are lucky, turtles and whales can often be spotted during October and November.

DOKODWENI
Dokodweni is a picturesque lagoon offering a calm and tranquil beach experience.

TIDAL POOLS

BALLITO BAY TIDAL POOL

Ballito's main tidal pool situated between Clarke and Salmon Bays is a vibrant and family-friendly pool. A walkway down to the tidal pool makes it easily accessible, and the shallow waters allow kids to play and snorkel freely while the adults watch from nearby.

CHAKA'S ROCK COVE

The cove can be found through a beach access pathway just below Salt Cafe. This hidden gem is perfect for lazing in the warm water and enjoying the peaceful surroundings.

SALT ROCK'S GRANNY'S POOL

Located just below Siggi's, the Granny's Pool is shallow and calm, perfect for the little ones to swim around and explore some of the sea creatures.

TINLEY MANOR TIDAL POOL

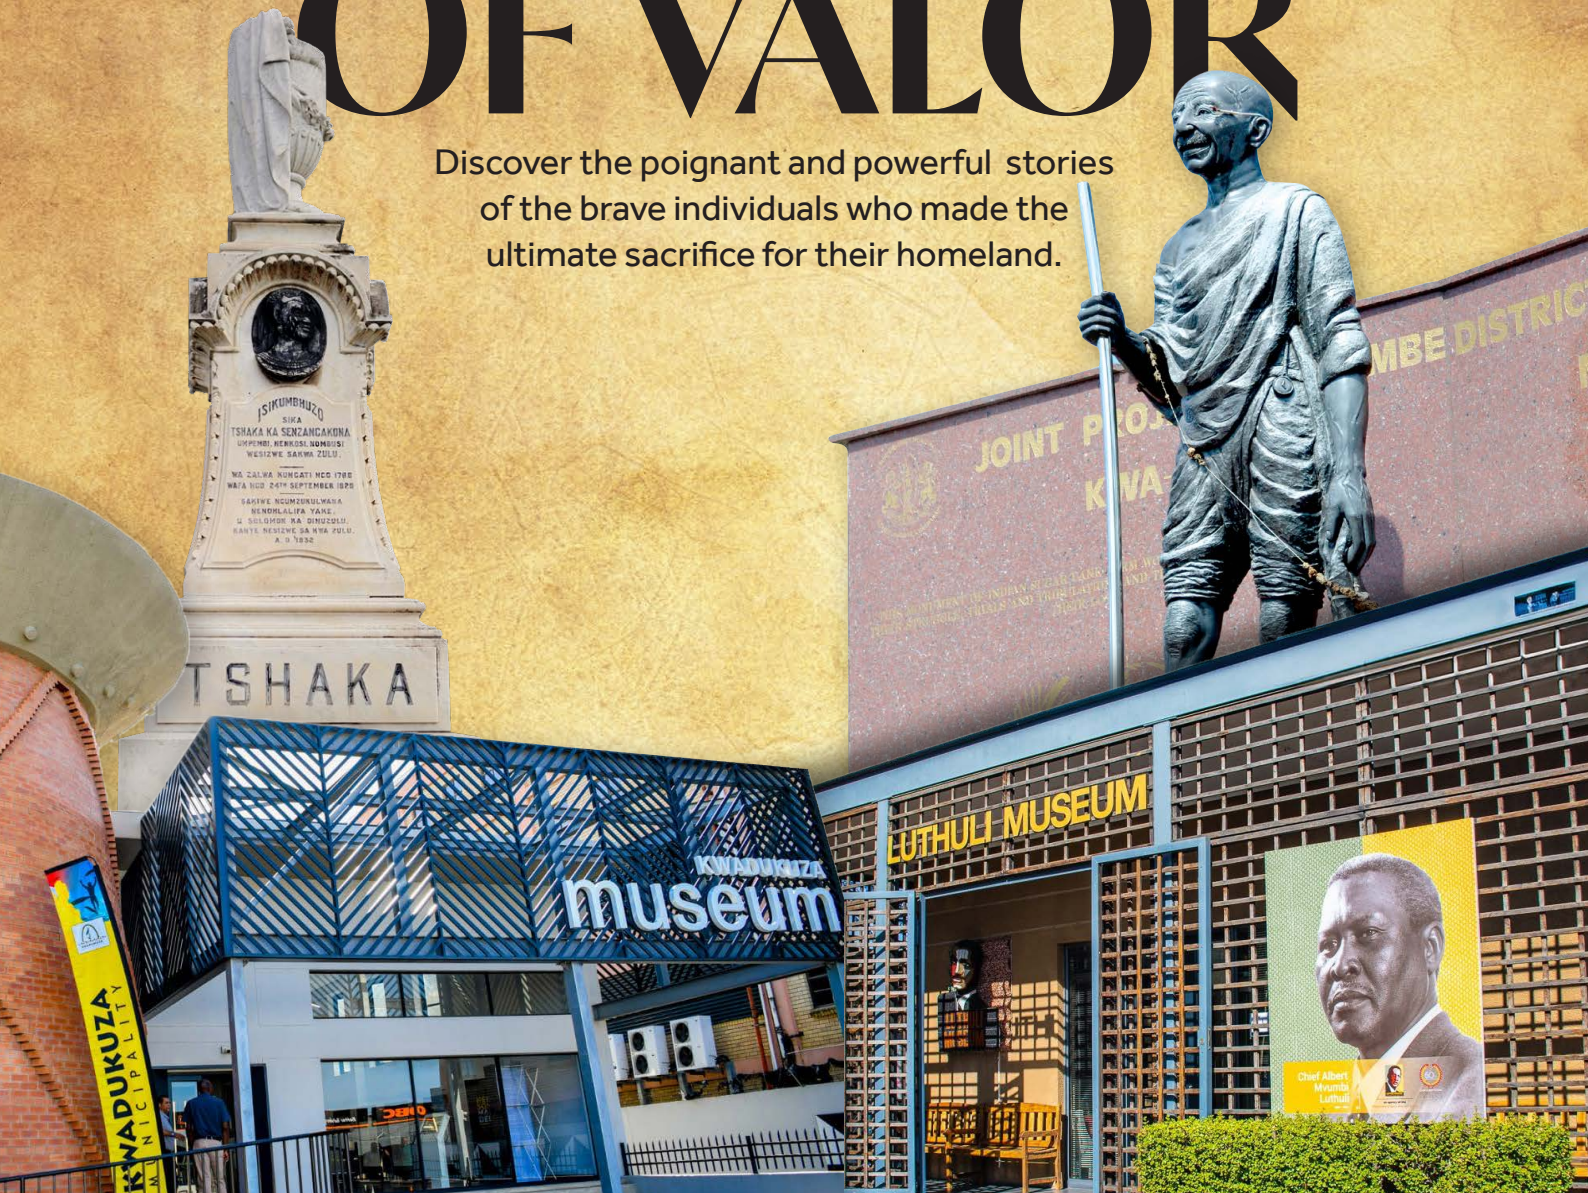

Hidden below a large hill lies a tidal pool in Tinley Manor, which is large enough for adults to immerse themselves in the warm water or take laps.

THE "SECRET" TIDAL POOL

Hidden somewhere north of Willard Bay and south of Thompson's Bay lies the so-called "secret" tidal pool. Small but extremely lovely and more like an ocean water tub, this tidal pool is perfect for wallowing in. Tucked into the side of a rock bank, this tiny pool can comfortably only accommodate two or three. Next time you are in the mood for a beach walk, challenge yourself to find it.

Echoes OF VALOR

Discover the poignant and powerful stories of the brave individuals who made the ultimate sacrifice for their homeland.

THE MIGHTY KING SHAKA

King Shaka, one of the most outstanding military leaders, founded the town of KwaDukuza almost 200 years ago and became the well-respected ruler of the land. Uniting the diverse Zulu nation was one of King Shaka's greatest triumphs.

His brothers killed King Shaka on 24 September 1828, now commemorated each year in KwaDukuza as King Shaka Day. The King Shaka Visitors Centre in KwaDukuza served as a memorial and was erected on the site of King Shaka's grave in 1932. Beside the memorial is the rock that is believed to have been the one he sat on when he was assassinated.

MAHATMA GANDHI

Gandhi was instrumental in the struggle against the apartheid regime and proclaimed that the destiny of the Indian community living on the North Coast was intertwined with the battle of the oppressed Zulu people. Together, the Zulu and Indian populations fought against the apartheid government.

SIBHUDU CAVE WORLD HERITAGE SITE

A Prehistoric Rock Shelter, above the uThongathi River has been declared a World Heritage site. It is considered to be one of South Africa's most important Archaeological Sites, a cornerstone for understanding the behavioural origins of modern humans.
The Sibhudu Caves was first excavated in 1983 by Archaeologist, Aron Mazel of the Natal Museum. Evidence for modern human behaviour at Sibhudu Cave include Shell beads as personal ornamentation, Bow-and-arrow technology, Hafting: composite tools, Bone tools, Use of bedding and medicinal plants, Extensive use of ochre and Microlithic technology.

THE ANGLO-ZULU WAR

King Cetshwayo won the battle and ruled over the Zulu people only to fight another war, this time defending his people against the British settlers in 1879. Two battles of the Anglo-Zulu War were fought on the North Coast, including the battle of Gingindlovu on 2 April 1879, when the British Army used machine guns for the first time in history.

The British forces won the war and took over the land for farming sugarcane – which led to Indian people being brought in as indentured labourers to work the fields.

CHIEF ALBERT LUTHULI

Born in Groutville and growing up on a mission station near KwaDukuza, Chief Albert Luthuli was given the title of Chief in 1935, succeeding his late uncle.

Luthuli became president of the African National Congress in 1952 and drew on his Christian faith and his status as an African chief to oppose the unjust apartheid system by identifying with and speaking on behalf of South Africans. His heroism was recognised internationally when –in 1961 – he became the first African Nobel Peace Prize winner.

THE WAR OF THE PRINCES

King Shaka's death sparked a violent battle for the Zulu throne that lasted several decades. The battle between King Shaka's nephews plunged the Zulu Kingdom into a civil war that killed 6 000 warriors, the highest number of fatalities of any warfare in South Africa. The site of the most brutal battle, eNdondakusuka, now exists peacefully on the banks of the Tugela River beneath waving fields of sugarcane.

KWADUKUZA MUSEUM

The newly renovated KwaDukuza Museum forms part of KwaDukuza CBD Regeneration Anchor Projects. It is aimed at developing and creating a cultural tourism hub/precinct, which incorporates existing King Shaka Memorial Centre (King Shaka Grave) within the CBD.
The project was conceptualised with an intention to demonstrate government investment commitment towards the CDB whilst promoting heritage tourism. The facility building consists of an appealing and attractive heritage precinct with key cultural and historical knowledge for the citizens of KwaDukuza.
